Worship at Home:

This week's video, illustrating John 14:15-21, can be found here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sjb84SLBChY>. While many churches are sending these to families to use in worship at home, others are including them in streamed services. Do let me know if there are any other resources you would find helpful.

Talking to Children About What's Happening:

Here are three articles that may be helpful in talking with children about what's happening. Some are fairly quick, easy reads, while some are in a bit more depth. Do pass them along to anyone else who may find them helpful:

Talking With Children About Covid-19, from The Lancet: https://www.thelancet.com/journals/lanchi/article/PIIS2352-4642\(20\)30097-3/fulltext30097-3/fulltext)

Talking to Children About Illness, from the British Psychological Society: <https://www.bps.org.uk/sites/www.bps.org.uk/files/Policy/Policy%20-%20Files/Talking%20to%20children%20about%20illness.pdf>

Telling Children That Somebody Has Died, from Oxford University Hospitals: <https://www.psych.ox.ac.uk/files/research/how-to-tell-children-that-someone-has-died.pdf>

Messy Church for Messy Times:

In partnership with the Reaching New People team, we're doing a series of online events looking at how you can stay in touch with Messy Church (or other non-Sunday-morning) families during these times. Full details of all the events can be found here: <https://www.stalbans.anglican.org/rnp/events/mcfmt/>

They include a webinar, Zoom cafes and online chats, and a video of a Messy Church worship service featuring some Bishops and Archdeacons who may look familiar ...
